

Irish Thoroughbred Marketing Racehorse to Riding Horse Class Equus Live 2013

Rules:

This class is open to thoroughbred horses only. This class is open to 'Irish Bred' horses only.

The top three horses at the Open Racehorse to Riding Horse class at the Failte Ireland Dublin Horse Show, the top three horses at the final of the Irish Thoroughbred Marketing Extracehorse of the Year at the Racehorse to Riding Horse Festival in Coilog on the 22nd September and the top two at the show in Coilog on the 18th August (once Irish Bred) will also be given an invitation to compete in this class. There will then be an additional two wild cards invited to compete. If the same horse has already qualified at the preceding show the next placed horse will be invited to compete at Equus Live.

Please note the number of entries in this class will be restricted to 10

Judging:

To be judged on the ride, and manners. Judges will ask the class to gallop. Judges may ride some of the exhibits and then may require individual shows from as many as time allows. The individual show, if required, must not exceed 2 minutes and to include the walk, trot, canter, simple change at canter, rein back, strike off on required leg, gallop on, halt and stand still. There will be a strong emphasis on manners, ride and training.

This class has kindly been sponsored by Irish Thoroughbred Marketing. The prize money for this class is €500 and the winner will also receive a rug and a trophy.

Entry Fee is €30.

Entries close on October 1st. NO LATE ENTRIES.

Entries to be sent to Amber Byrne, Racehorse to Riding Horse, Equus Live, Gerrardstown House Stud, Dunshaughlin, Co.Meath.

Cheques to be made payable to AMJO Consultancy Ltd.